

Algebraic Expression – a number, variable, or combination of the two connected by some mathematical operation like addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, exponents and/or roots.