

Coefficient – the numerical part of a term, usually written before the literal part, as 2 in  $2x$  or  $2(x + y)$ . Most commonly used in algebra for the constant factors, as distinguished from the variables.