Constant: A constant is a term that does not change. For example, the number of days in the week, 7, does not change, so it is a constant.

Constant – a symbol representing a value that doesn't change.