

Solution: A number that makes an equation true is a solution to that equation. For example, in using the above equation, $x + 7 = 18$, we know that the statement is true if $x = 11$.