

System of Equations – two or more equations in two or more variables considered together or simultaneously. The equations in the system may or may not have a common solution.