Addition/Subtraction/Division/Multiplication

– says that

"If we add, subtract, multiply, or divide an number on BOTH sides of the equal sign in an equation, then we have carried out one of those basic arithmetic operations."