Definition of a midpoint

– says that "If a point is a midpoint, then the point divides a segment into TWO equal parts."

Midpoint Theorem

– says that "If a point is a midpoint, then the point divides a segment so that each part of the segment is equal to ONE HALF of the whole segment."