

Substitution Property

– says that

“If we insert an expression into an equation in place of another expression, then we have used substitution.”